A CATECHISM.

Q. What is your faith? and what do you believe concerning God? and what concerning Jesus Christ? and concerning the Holy Ghost? and concerning the Scripture? and concerning the Church? and concerning the Sacraments? and concerning the last end of man? (This you must do in order.)

A. I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried. He

Q. What is the true preaching of the Gospel? and what the true administration of the Sacraments?

A. Preaching is the doctrine of Jesus Christ, as preached by his apostles and the witnesses of his doctrine, and as delivered by the Word of God, and as practiced by the Church; the true administration of the Sacraments is the giving of the same to believers according to the institution of Christ.

THE VISITATION OF THE SICK.

When a sick person is visited by a minister, it is

The ORDER for the VISITATION of the Sick.

| When our Lord Jesus Christ visited the sick, | When our Lord Jesus Christ visited the sick, |
| He said to His disciples, | He said to His disciples, |
| "Depart and visit the sick, | "Depart and visit the sick, |
| and anoint them with oil, | and anoint them with oil, |
| and say to them, | and say to them, |
| "Peace be to you." | "Peace be to you." |

When we visit the sick, we should do as He commanded, and say:

"Peace be to you."
THE VISITATION OF THE SICK

The page also contains a small paragraph at the bottom, which seems to be a title or a heading, possibly "The Visit of Jesus Christ to the Sick".

The text is not entirely clear due to the quality of the image, but it appears to be discussing the visitation of the sick and the importance of visiting the sick, possibly in a religious context.

THE COMMUNION OF THE SICK.

OASMUCH asuniversal, how tobe subject to manyfolds Perils, Distresses, and Sickness, and not to be able to deliver themfrom theirefforts, which may be given to them in a readiness to do whensoever they shall demur, Almighty God to call them. This shall not be our case, and we therefore shall not disbelieve the truth of the holy Communion of the Body and Blood of our Saviour Christ, which shall be celebrated in the Church, where it be so near us, that the Lord shall be present in us, and shall be with us. For we believe, and commit ourselves to the Church, and to the Lord, and to this Communion, and to the Saviour of our souls. Therefore shall we not fear, but rather rejoice, to have the body and blood of Christ. Amen.

The COLLECT.

MIGHTY and eternal God, make us to be partakers of your spiritual gifts, and to be enabled to receive you with faith, in such a manner that we may worthily partake of the holy sacrament of the Body and Blood of our Saviour Jesus Christ, by the power of the Holy Ghost, who, with the Father and the Son, liveth and reigneth for ever and ever. Amen.

THE EPISTLE.

Heb. 12:1-5.

Yea, for whom Christ also suffered once for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but made alive by the Spirit: in whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins.

The GOSPEL.

John 20:19-23.

And he said unto them, Loose him and let him go, in whom ye believe, for the power of Christ is with him.

The BURIAL OF THE DEAD.

Now the Lord is risen from the dead, and is become the firstfruits of them that slept. For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead: For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ all shall be made alive. But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

Amen.
BURIAL OF THE DEAD

The knowledge that there is a natural body and there is a spiritual body, and that the two are separate, and that the natural body is the body that we see, and the spiritual body is the body that we cannot see, is a fundamental truth in our faith. It is through this understanding that we come to understand the concept of burial. The physical body is laid to rest, and the spiritual body continues to exist in a spiritual realm.

CHURCHING OF WOMEN

To be regarded among the church, one must be properly baptized and have a valid marriage certificate. The ceremony consists of the priest washing the woman's hands and taupe with a special blessing. This act signifies the woman's acceptance into the church.

MIGHTY GOD

The Mighty God is the one who created the universe and all that is in it. He is the Provider of all things, and He is the One who gives life to all creatures. The Mighty God is also known as the Lord God, and He is the One who carries us through the storms of life.

THE COLLECT

Merciful God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, we beseech you, give us your mercy. Give your mercy to us, Father, who are in need of your help. Give your mercy to us, Father, who are in need of your help. Give your mercy to us, Father, who are in need of your help. Give your mercy to us, Father, who are in need of your help.

PSALM 127

The Lord will guide our steps, and we will not fall. He will direct our paths, and we will not stumble. We will not be driven from our course, but we will be guided to the path of righteousness.

THE THANKSGIVING OF WOMEN AFTER CHILD-BIRTH

Commonly called

The Churching of Women

When the woman has given birth, she must go to the church and be properly baptized. She must then be properly equipped with the necessary items for caring for the child. This act signifies the woman's acceptance into the church.

ORAS MUCH as it hath pleased the Lord

To give us all grace, to help us in our times of need, and to give us strength in our trials. This verse is a reminder to seek the Lord's help in times of need.

PSALM 31

This psalm is a cry for help in times of need. It is a call to the Lord for protection and deliverance.

ALMIGHTY GOD

We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we adore thee, we give thee thanks for thy great and wondrous works. This verse is a call to give thanks to the Lord for his goodness and mercy.

Commination.

But God, who is the Lord, said unto me, "Do not fear: for I will be with thee, and will give thee rest in the countries of the enemies. I will make thine enemies into a wall of fire, and they shall fall into the sword of thine enemies. I will be a shield for thee, and a buckler to save thee. Vaunt not thyself against the Lord, all ye princes of the earth: for he hath exalted him above you all."
