

The XIV Day.

have condemned the generation of thy children.
15 Then thought I to understand this truth was too hard for me.
16 Until I visited the sanctuary, if God then understand the end of these men:
17 Namely, how thou desisteth from thy places; and castest them down, and destroyest them.
18 So how suddenly do they consume, perish and come to a fearful end!
19 Yea, even like as adrenes when an antelope doth make their image to vanish out of the city.
20 Thus my heart was grieved, & went even through my veins.
21 So foolish was I, and ignorant; even as it were a bright before these.
22 Never-forthis, I am always by thee; for thou refreshest me by thy right hand.
23 They shall guide me with thy comfort, and after that receive me into glory.
24 When have I in heaven but there is none upon earth that desireth me in comparison of these.
25 The flesh and my heart faileth, but the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.
26 For to them that professe these, shall perish; then have destroyed all them commit fornication against these.
27 But it is good for me to hold me by thy word, to put my trust in the world yet, and fear of all thy works in the gates of the daughter of Zion.

PSALM 74.

It is well, Deus.

O GOD, wherefore art thou abominous so long, why is my wrath so hot against me, & the curse of thy justice?
2 I think upon the congregation, whom thou hast purchased, and redeemed of old.
3 I think upon the tribe of thine inheritance, and mount Sion, wherein thou hast dwelt.
4 Lift up thy foot, that may utterly destroy every enemy; & hath done in the sanctuary.
5 Thine adversaries rose in the midst of thy congregations; & set up their banners for tokens.
6 He that hewed timber before out of the thick trees, was known to bring it to an excellent work.
7 But now they break down all the carved work thereof, with axes, and hammers.
8 They have set fire upon thy places; and have defiled the dwelling place of thy Name, even unto the ground.
9 Yea, they said in their hearts, let us make his work of them altogether; thus have they burnt up all the houses of God in the land.
10 We see not our tokens, there no token prophet more; no, not he is there among them that undo standeth any more,

11 O God how long shall the adversary do this dishonor; how long shall the enemy blaspheme thy Name for ever?

12 Wherefore dost thou thyself standest not in thy power,

13 For God is my King of old; & he doth it himself.

14 Thou didst divide sea through the power; thou breakst the heads of dragons in thy nature;

15 Thou smotest the heads of Le-thanathan in pieces; and gavest him to meat for the people in the wilderness.

16 Thou broughtest out fountains, and watered our hard rocks;

thou didst supply thy nation,

17 The day is thine, & night is thine; thou hast prepared the light and the sun.

18 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth; thou hast made summer and winter.

19 Remember this, O Lord, how the enemy hath rebuked, and how thy people have blasphemed thy Name.

20 I deliver unto the soul of thy people unto the multitude of the enemies; and forget not the congregation of the poor for ever.

21 Look upon the covenant, for all the earth is full of darkness & cruel habitation.

22 O let not the simple go away affashed; but let the poor, and needy give praise unto thy Name.

23 O let God maintain thine cause; remember how of foolish men blasphemed thee daily.

24 Forget not the voice of these enemies; the presumption of them that hate thee, encroaseth ever more and more.

MORNING PRAYER
PSALM 75.

Confitebor tibi.

U NTO thee O God, do we give thanks; ye, under thee, do we give thanks.
2 Thy Name also is of nigh; & that do thyondrous works declare.
3 When I recrave the congregation; shall judge according unto right.
4 The earth is nigh; and all the inhabitants thereof. I bear up thy pillars of it.
5 I laid unto the world, Deal not so madly; and in the ungodly, Set not up your horn.
6 So set up your horn on high; and speak not with stiff neck.
7 For promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west; nor yet from the south.
8 And I said, It is mine own, informed; but will remember of years of thy right hand of most highest.
9 I will remeber the works of a cup, and the name is red; it is full mixt; and he poureth out of the same.

10 As for the dregs thereof; all the ungodly of the earth shall drink them, and suck them out.
11 But I will talk of the Lord of Jacob; and prays him for ever.

12 All the horns of the ungodly also willl break; and the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

PSALM 76.

None in Juxta.

In fury is God known; his greatness in Israel. A Psalm is his intercession; and his dwelling in Zion.
2 There stroke at the serpents of the body of field, & forest, and of bridle.
3 Then art more honourable, and might; then the hills of the robbers;
4 The proud are rebuked; they have slept their sleep; and all men whose hands were mighty, have found nothing.

5 Let thine rebuke, O God of Jacob; both the chariot and horse be fallen.

6 Then even thou art to be feared; and who may stand in thy sight when thou art angry?

7 Thou dost cause thy judgment to be heard from heaven; & earth trembled, and was still.

8 When God arose to judgment; and to help all the meek upon earth.

9 To the persecutors of man, thou turnedst them; & all men turned to thy praise; and the persecutors of them shall thou restrain.

10 Promis unto the Lord your God, and keep it; all we that are round about, & bring presents unto him that ought to be feared.

11 He shall restrain the spirit of princes; and is wonderful among the kings of the earth.

PSALM 77.

Voca mea Domine.

WILL cry unto God with my voice; even unto God will I cry with my voice, and he shall hearken unto me.
2 In the time of my trouble sought the Lord; my sore ran and ceased not in the night season; my soul required comfort.
3 When I am in heaviness, I will stand upon God; when my heart is vexed, I will complain.
4 Thou hast taught me to make; I am so feeble that I cannot speak.
5 I have considered the days of old, and the years that are past.
6 I call to remembrance my song; and in the night I communed with mine own heart, and searched my spirit.
7 Will the Lord absolve himself for ever? until he be no more intricated.
8 Is his mercy clean gone for ever; and is his promise come unto naught; as an end for evermore?
9 Hath his forgotten to be gracious; and will he shut up his loving kindness in displeasure?
10 And I said, It is mine own, informed; but will remember of years of thy right hand of most highest.
11 I will remeber the works of a cup, and the name is red; it and the wonderful works that he had shewed for them.

12 Marvelous things did he in the sight of our fathers in the land of Egypt; even in field of Zoan.

13 He divided the sea; and let them go through; he made the waters to stand on an heap.

14 In the day time also he led them with a cloud; and all the night therewith a light of fire.

15 He clave the hard rocks in the wilderness; and gave them drink thereof, as it had been out of the great depth.

16 He brought water's out of the stony rock; so that it gushed out like the vivors.

17 The clouds poured out water; the air thundered; and thine arrows were abroad.

18 The voice of thy thunder was heard round about; lightning came upon the ground; earth was moved and shook withal.

19 They brake open for them, & they brake open for them also.

20 They brake open for them also.

21 They thought not of his hand; & of the day when he delivered them from the hand of the enemy.

22 How he had wrought his miracles in Egypt; and his wonders in the field of Zon.

23 He turned back and tempted; and moved the holy one in Israel.

24 They thought not of his hand; & of the day when he delivered them from the hand of the enemy.

25 He smote the stony rock in the wilderness?

26 He turned their waters into blood; so that they might not drink of the rivers.

27 He sent locusts among them; & devoured them up; and frogs to afflict them.

28 He gave their fruit unto the caterpillar; and their labour unto grashopper.

29 He destroyed their vines with hailstones; and their mulberry trees with the frost.

30 He smote their cattle also with hailstones; and their flock with hot thunder-bolts.

31 He cast upon them the surfeits of his wrath, anger, displeasure, and trouble; and sent evil angels among them.

32 He caused the east wind to blow under heaven; & through his power he brought in the south wind.

33 He rained lish upon them as thick as dust, and feathered sand; as the land of the sea.

34 He terrified among their habitations; even round about their habitations.

35 That they should not hide them from the children of the generation to come; but to them of the same.

36 That they might put their trust in God; and not to forgo his works of God, but to keep his commandments;

37 And not to be as their forefathers, a faithless and stubborn generation; a generation that set not their heart aright & whose pride cleaveth not steadfastly unto God.

38 Therefore their days did he consume in vanity; and their years in trouble.

39 When he slew them, they sought him; and turned their ear; and enquired after him.

40 And I said, It is mine own, informed; but will remember of years of thy right hand of most highest.

41 But for what he had done;

42 And made all the first born in Egypt; the most principal and mighty in the dwellings of Ham.

43 But as for his own people, he led them forth like sheep; and carried them in the wilderness like a flock.

44 He brought them out safe; that they should not fear; and overcame their enemies with his sea.

45 And brought them within the borders of his sanctuary; even to his mountain which he purchased with his right hand.

46 He called unto the heathen also before them; caused their land to be divided among them for an heritage; and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

47 But they tempted and displeased the most high God; and kept not his testimonies;

48 But turned their backs; and fell away like their forefathers; casting gods like a broken briar.

49 For they grievous him with their hill-altars; and provoked him

53 For their heart was not whetted with him; neither continued they steadfast in his command.

54 But he was most to merciful; that he forgave their misdeeds; and digested out them not.

55 Yet many a time turned he his wrath away; and would not suffer his whole displeasure to settle.

56 He turned back and tempted; and moved the holy one in Israel.

13 Wherefore do the heathen say, where is now their God?

PSALM 82.

Exultate Deo-
SING me merrily unto God our strength: make a noise unto God of Jacob,
2 Take the psalm, bring hither the tablet: the merry harp with the lute,

3 Blow up the trumpet in the morning: even in the time appointed, and upon the solemn feast day.
4 For this was made a statute for Israel: and a law for the God of Jacob.

5 This he ordained in Joseph for a testimony: when he came out of the land of Egypt, and had heard a strange language.
6 He laid his shoulder from the burden: and his hands were delivered from making the pots.

7 Then called he upon me in trouble, and I delivered him: and he said, these tribulations as the storm fall upon thee.

8 I proved thee also at the waters of strife.

9 Hear, O my people, and will I assure thee, O Israel: if thou will hearken unto me,

10 There shall no strange god be in thine house: neither shall there worship any other god.

11 Long as the gods bring them out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I shall fill it.

12 But my people would not hear my voice, and Israel would not obey me.

13 So I gave them up to their own hearts lusts: and let them follow their own imaginations.

14 O that my people would have hearkened unto me: if Israel had walked in my ways, 15 I should not have put down their enemies: and horned my hand against their adversaries.

16 The haters of the Lord should have been found void: but their name should have endured for ever.

17 He should have fed them with the finest wheat flour: and with honey out of the stone rock.

18 The wild boar out of the wood, both root it up: and the wild beasts of the field devour it.

19 Turne again, thou God of hosts, look down from heaven, behold, and visit this vine:

20 And plucke of vineyard that thy right hand hath planted: and the branch that thou madest strong for thyself.

21 His terrors made fire cut down, and they shall perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.

22 Let this hand be upon the man of thy right hand: and upon the son of man whom thou madest strong for thine own self:

13 And so will not we go back from thee: O let us live, and we shall call upon thy Name.
14 Turn us again, O Lord, God of hosts, from the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

PSALM 83.

Deus tuus?

HOLD not thy tongue, O God, keep not still thy silence: restrain not thy self, O God.

2 For thine enemies make a murmuring: and they that hate thee have lif up their head, and they have imagined craftily against the people: and taken counsel against thy secret ones.

3 They have said, Come and let us root them out: that they be no more a people: and that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

4 For one day in thy courts is better than a thousand.

5 Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord: there is not one that can do as thou dost.

6 And all nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship thee, O Lord: and shall glorify thy Name.

7 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art great alone.

8 Teach me thy way, O Lord, and I will walk in thy truth. I knit my heart unto thee, that I may fear thy Name.

PSALM 85.

Benedic Domine.

ORD thou art become gracious unto thy land: thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob.

2 Thou hast forgiven the offence of the people: and covered all their sins.

3 Thou hast taken away all the judgments, and turned thy face from the wrathful indignation.

4 Turne thou, and let them come to us: we are all thy people.

5 We are all thy people: and we are all thy inheritance: and as the floods before the wind;

6 Turne thou, and let us see thy face: and let us see thy glory.

7 Show us thy mercy, O Lord, and grant us thy salvation.

8 We will hearken what the Lord God will say concerning us: for he shall speak peace unto his people: & to his saints, that they shall not again

9 For his salvation is nigh them: that fear him, that glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth are met together: righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

11 And they shall know that thou whose Name is Jehovah: art only the most High over all of earth.

12 Yet the Lord shall shew loving kindness: and our land shall give her increase.

13 Righteousness shall go before him: and he shall direct his going in the way.

MORNING PRAYER
PSALM 86.

Indica Domine.

OW down thine ear, O Lord, and hear me: for I am poor and in misery.

2 Prefer me thou my soul, for I am thy God, save thy servant that putteth his trust in thee.

3 Be merciful unto me, O Lord, for I will call daily upon thee.

4 Comfort the foul of thy servant for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

5 For thou Lord art good and gracious, and of great mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

6 Give ear, Lord, unto my prayer, and ponder the voice of my humble desires.

7 In the time of my trouble I will call upon thee: for thou hearst me.

8 Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord: there is not one that can do as thou dost.

9 And all nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship thee, O Lord: and shall glorify thy Name.

10 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art great alone.

11 Teach me thy way, O Lord, and I will walk in thy truth. I knit my heart unto thee, that I may fear thy Name.

12 O Lord, God of hosts, blessed is he that putteth his trust in thee.

13 Teach me thy way, O Lord, and I will walk in thy truth. I knit my heart unto thee, that I may fear thy Name.

14 I will thank thee, O Lord, my God with all my heart: and will praise thy Name for evermore.

15 For great is thy mercy towards me: and thou hast delivered my soul from the nethermost hell.

16 For the pride is risen: a goingome: and the congerations of naughty men have sought after my soul, and have not beene before their eyes.

17 But thou, O Lord, God, art full of compassion and mercy: long suffering, plenteous in goodness and truth.

18 I will then turn unto me, and have mercy upon me: give thy strength unto thy servant, and help the son of my handmaid.

19 That they which say upon me, martha, martha, hate me: may feel it & be ashamed: because thou, Lord, hast helped me, and comforted me.

20 Praise the Lord, fundamental eius.

21 ER foundations are upon the holy hills: that Lord loveth the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

22 Very excellent things are spoken of thee: thou city of God.

23 I will think upon Rahab and Babylon: with them that know me.

24 And of the Philistines also: and they of Tyre, with the Marians, to there was he born.

25 And of Zion it shall be reported: that he was born in her: and of her shall establish her.

26 The Lord shall reprove it when he writeth up the people: that he

PSALM 88.
Domine Deus.

O LORD God of my salvation I have cri'd day & night before thee: O let my prayer enter into thy presence, incline thine ear unto my calling.
2 For my soul is full of trouble: & my life dwelleth nigh unto hell.
3 I am counted as one of them that go down into the pit; and I have been even as a man that hath no strength.
4 Ever among the dead like unto them that are wounded and lie in the grave who are out of remembrance, and are cut away from this hand.
5 Thou hast laid me in the low of pit in a place of darkness, & in the deep.
5 Thine indignation liveth hard upon me: and thou hast vexed me with all thy torments.
7 Thou hast cast away mine acquaintance far from me: and made me to be abhorred of them.
8 I am in prison: that I cannot get forth: for every troublous Lord I have called daily upon thee: I have stretched forth my hands unto thee.
10 Of them that are numbered among me dead: or that the dead rise up again, and praise thee?
11 Shall thy loving kindness be shewed in the grave: or thy faithfulnes in destruction?
12 Shall thy wondrous works be known in the dark: and thy right endings in the land where all things are forgotten?
13 Unto thee has cried, O Lord: and early shall my prayer come before thee.
14 Lord why abhorrest thou my soul: and hiddest thou thy face from me?
15 I am in misery: and like unto him that is at the point to die from his youth up: the terrors have I suffered with a troubled mind.
16 Thy wrathful displeasure goeth over me: and the fear of thee hath undone me.
17 They came round about me: deadly like waters: and compassed me together on every side.
18 My unnes and friends hast thou put away from me: and hid mine acquaintance out of my sight.

5 I will the very heavens shall praise thy wondrous works: and the truth in the congregation of the saints.
6 For who is he among the clouds: that shall be compared unto thee? 7 And what is he among the gods: that shall be like unto the Lord?
8 God is very great to be feared in the council of the saints: & to be had in reverence of all them that are round about him.
9 They that are round about him: that are round about him: that is like unto thee: this truth most mighty Lord is on every side.

10 They rulest the raging of the sea: thou didst lay the waves thereof in their service.
11 Thou hast subdued Egypt: and destroyed in their haughty cities: and art glorified in heaven.
12 But thou hast abhorred and forsaken these: accosted: and art displeased with them.
13 Thou hast broken the covenant of thy servant: and cast his crown to the ground.

14 Thou hast set off thronum: all his heapes: & broken down his strong holds.
15 All they that go by spoil him: & he is become a reproch to his neighbours.
16 Thou hast set up the right hand of his enemies: and made all his adversaries to rejoice.

17 Thou hast taken an as the edge of his sword: and given him no victory in the battle.
18 Thou hast put on this glory: & cast thy throne down to the ground.
19 The day's of his youth hast thou horined: and exored him with dishonour.

20 And how long will thou hide thy self for ever: and shall thy wrath burn like fire?
21 Remember how short my time is: wherefore hast thou made all men for naught?

22 What man is he that liveth: and shall not see death: & shall he deliver his soul from the hand of hell?
23 O Lord where are the old loving kindnes: which thou shewest unto David in thy truth?

24 Remember I beseeche you: that the servants have: and how I do live in my bosom: the riuless of many people:
25 Wherewith thine enemies have blasphemed thee: and slandered the fangles of thine lawgives: praised be the Lord for evermore. Amen and. Amos.

LORD

The XVII Day.

27 He shall call me: thou art my father: my god: & my strong salvation.
28 And I will make him my teiborn: higher then kings of the earth.
29 My mercy will I keep for him for evermore: and my covenant shall stand fast with him.

30 His seed also will I make to endure for ever: and his throne as the days of heaven.
31 But if his children forsake my law: and walk not in my judgments:
32 If they break my statutes: and keep not my commandments: I will visit their offences with the rod: and their sins with stripes.

33 Nevertheless my loving kindness will I not utterly take from him: nor suffer my truth to fail.
34 My covenant will I not break nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips: I have sworn once by my hand: that will not fail David.
35 His seed shall endure for ever: & his seat is like as the sun before me.
36 He shall stand fast for evermore as the moon: and as the faithful witness in heaven.

37 But thou hast abhorred and forsaken these: accosted: and art displeased with them.

THE PSALMS.

ORD, thou hast been our refuge: from one generation to another.
2 Before mountains were brought forth: or ever the earth and the world were made: thou art fed from everlasting: and world without end.
3 Thou thy mansleman didst布施 before: Come again, ye children of men.

4 For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday: seeing that is past: a watch in the night.
5 As it were a sleep: & fade away suddenly like the grass.
6 In the morning it is green: & groweth up: in the evening it is cut down, dried up: and withered.
7 We confine away in thy displeasure: and are afraid: to keep all in thy way.
8 They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hast not the foot against a stone.

9 They shall lay upon lion & ader: the young lion & the dragon shall her tread under thy feet.
10 Because he hath for his true upon me: therefore will I offer unto him: I will set him up: because he hath known my Name.

11 He shall call upon me: and I will hear him: I am with him in trouble: I will deliver him: and bring him to honour.
12 With long life will I satisfy him: & show him my salvation.

PSALM 92.

17 If the Lord had not helped me, I had not failed; but the foul had been given unto me.
18 But when I said, My foot hath slipped; the mercy of the Lord held me up.
19 So the multitude of the servants that had in my heart, they confisca have reproached me yet,

MORNING PRAYER
PSALM 95.

Veni, exulta.

Come let us sing unto the Lord; let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation.
2 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and shew our felicity glad in him with psalms.
3 For the Lord is a great God; and a great King above all gods, & in his hand are all the corners of the earth: & by strength of his hills is his abode.
4 He is his & he made it; and his hands prepared the dry land.
5 Come unto him with fear and fall down; and kneel before the Lord our maker.
6 For he is the Lord our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.
7 To day if ever will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness, when your fathers tempted me, and saw my works.
8 For years & years I grieved with this generation, and laid it to a people that do err in their hearts, for they have not known my name.
9 Into whom I smote in my wrath, that they should not enter into my rest.

PSALM 96.

Cantate Dominum.

Sing unto the Lord a new song; sing unto the Lord, all ye white earth.
2 Sing unto the Lord, & praise his Name; be telling of his salvation from day to day.
3 Declare his honour unto the heathen; and his wonders unto all peoples.
4 For the Lord is great, and can not worthily be praised; he is more to be feared than all gods.

THE PSALMS.

5 As for all the gods of heathen, they are but idols: but it is the Lord that made the heavens, & glory and worship are before him; power and honour are in his sanctuary.

6 Harken unto the Lord, O ye kindreds of the people; acribe unto the Lord, & give him worship; & bring presents, and come into his courts.
7 O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness; let the whole earth stand in awe of him.
8 Tell it among the heathen, & the Lord is King; and that it is he who made the round world, so fit that it cannot be moved; and now that he will judge the people righteously.
9 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is; let the field also rejoice; & all that is in it; then shall all the tribes of the world rejoice before the Lord.
10 If ye come not, for he cometh to judge the earth; and with righteousness to judge the world, and the people with his truth.

PSALM 97.

Dominus regnabit.

HE Lord is King of earth, he may be glad thereof; yes, the multitude of the isles may be glad thereof.
2 Clouds and darkness are round about him; righteousness & judgment are the habitation of his feet.
3 Here shall go before him, and burn up his enemies on every side.
4 His lightning gave shine unto the world; the earth fear him; & was afraid.
5 His hills melted like wax at the presence of the Lord; at the presence of the Lord of whole earth.
6 The heavens have declared his righteousness; & all the people have seen his glory.
7 Confounded be all they that work evil; & that delight in great goods; & that despise poor men; & that revile all gods.
8 Son of man, & thy reign; & daughters of Judea, were glad, because of the judgments, O Lord.
9 For then, Lord, art high; then all that are in the earth, thou art exalted far above all gods.
10 O ye that love the Lord, see that ye hate the thing which is evil; the Lord preserveth the souls of his saints; he shall deliver them from the hand of the evildoer.

8 He hath remembred his mercy and truth toward the house of Israel; and all the ends of the world have seen the salvation of our God.

9 Show your felicitie joyful unto the Lord, all ye lands; sing, rejoice and give thanks.

10 Praise the Lord upon the harp; sing to the harp with a psalm of thanksgiving.

11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is; let the field also rejoice; & all that is in it; then shall all the tribes of the world rejoice before the Lord the King.

12 Let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is; the round world, and they that dwell therein.

13 Let the floods clap their hands; & let the hills be jostled together before the Lord; for he is come to judge the earth.

18 Touch not me; I am sanctified; and we are sanctified as thine.

19 Moreover he called for a dearth upon the land; and destroyed all the provision of bread.

20 But he had sent a man before them, the messenger Joseph, who was sold to a bondman;

21 Whence for this he hasten'd back; the iron entered into his side;

22 Until the time came that his cause was known; the word of the Lord tried him.

23 The king sent, and delivered him; & prince of people let him go free;

24 He made him Lord also of his house, and ruler of all his substance;

25 That he might inform his princes after his will; and teach his senators wisdom.

26 And so also came into Egypt; and Jacob a stranger in land of Ham.

27 And he increased his people exceedingly; and made them

32 He turned their waters into blood, and slew their fish.

33 Their land brought forth frogs, grasshoppers, and locusts in their kings' chambers;

34 He spake the word, and there came all manner of flies; and lice in all their quarters.

35 He gave them hailstones for rain, and flames of fire in the land.

36 He smote their vines also & fig-trees, and defroyed the trees that were in their crafts.

37 He spake the word, and by grasshoppers came, and caterpillars, & innumerable; and did eat up all the grass in their land and devoured the fruit of their ground.

38 He smote all the firstborn in their land, even the chief of all their strength.

39 He brought them forth also with silver and gold; there was not one feeble person among their tribes.

40 Egypt was glad at their departing; for they were afraid of them.

41 He spread out a cloud to be a covering, and fire to give light in the night season.

42 At their desire he brought quails, and he filled them with the bread of heaven.

gentile land;

46 And gave no commandments unto his word;

47 But murmured in their tents;

48 And hearkened not unto the voice of the Lord.

49 Then lifted up his hand against them to curse them in the wilderness.

50 To cut off their seed among the nations;

51 And gathered them out of the lands,

52 From the east and from the west;

53 From the north & from the south.

54 Then they provoked him to an avengement; and hearkened not divide Sion, and mete out thy valley of Succoth.

8. Gilead is mine, and Manges is mine; Ephraim also is the strength of my head.
9. Juda is my law-giver; Moab is my rough place; over-dam will
I cross my face upon Philistia, will I triumph.
10. Who will lead me into strong

PSALM 116. Dilexi quantum.

AM well pleased; that the Lord hath heard the voice of my prayer.
2 That he hath inclined his ear unto me: therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.
3 The snare of death compassed me round about: & pains of hell gat hold upon me.
4 I shall find trouble & heaviness, and I will call upon the Name of the Lord: O Lord, I beseeche thee, de liver my soul.
5 Gracious is the Lord and righte

6 The Lord preserveth the simple:
Lois in misery, and helped me.
7 Turn again thou unto the right of me first: for the Lord hath ve nued thee.

8 And why? thou hast done ex ceeding me: thou hast delivered me from death: ministrerest from tears, and me from falling.
9 I will call before the Lord, in the land of the living.
10 As I believed, and therefore will I call: for I am not yet dead.
11 I said in my heart: All men are liars.
12 Whatsoever shall give unto the Lord: for all the benefits that he hath done unto me?
13 As I believed, and therefore will I call upon the Name of the Lord.
14 I will pay my vows now in the presence of all his people: right dear in the sight of the Lord, in the death of his saints.
15 Behold, O Lord, how I am desirous: I am thy servant: &

O GIVE

The XXIV Day.

GIVE thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: because his mercy endureth for ever.

Let Israel now confess, that he is gracious: and that his mercy endureth for ever.

Let the house of Israel now confess, that his mercy endureth for ever.

Yea, let them now confess, that the Lord, confesses, that his mercy endureth for ever.

I called upon the Lord in trouble; and the Lord heard me at large.

The Lord is my side: I will never leave what man doth unto me.

The Lord taketh my part with them that help me; therefore shall I say before mine enemies,

It is better to trust in the Lord, than to put my confidence in man.

It is better to trust in the Lord, than to put my confidence in princes.

All nations compassed me round about: but in the Name of the Lord, didst thou comfort me.

Thou hast kept me in thy law, on every side: but in the Name of the Lord, will I destroy them.

They have made me like to leprosy, and are extinct even as the first among the thorbs: for in the Name of the Lord, will I destroy them.

Thou hast kept me safe at me that I might fall: but if Lord now help me, and if he be my strength, & my song: & is become my salvation.

The voice of joy and health is in the dwellings of the righteous: & right hand of the Lord bringeth many things to pass.

The right hand of the Lord hath pre-eminence: & right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass.

I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord.

The Lord hath chastised & corrected me: but he hath not given me over unto death.

Open unto me the gates of righteousness: that may go into them, and give thanks unto the Lord.

This is the gate of the Lord: the righteous shall enter into it.

I will thank thee, for thou hast heard me: and art become my salvation.

The same stone which the builders refused: is become the headstone in the corner.

This is the Lord's doing: and it is marvellous in our eyes.

This is the day which the Lord hath made: we will rejoice and be glad in it.

Help me now, O Lord: O Lord, end us now prosperity;

Blessed be he that smiteth in the Name of the Lord: no man hath wished you good luck, yet that are of the ways of the Lord.

Lord is the Lord who hath shewed us light, bind the sacrifice with cords, yea, even unity horns of altar.

6 Their heart is as far as braveny: but my delight hath been in thy law.

7 It is good for me that I have been in trouble: that I may learn thy statutes.

8 O quicken me after thy lovingkindness: & so shall I keep thy testimonies of thy mouth.

THE PSALMS.

7 The majesty laid wait for me: to destroy me: but I will consider thy testimonies.

8 Life that all things come to an end: but thy commandment is exceeding broad.

Quoniam dilexi te!

ORD, what two have I unto thy law: all the day long is my fledge in it.

2 Thou through thy commandments hast made me nigher unto mine enemies: for they are even with me.

3 I have many under standings: then my teachers: for thy testimonies are my staffs.

4 I am nigher them aged: because I keep thy commandments.

5 I have refrained my feet from every evil way: that I may keep thy word.

6 I have not shirked from thy judgments: for thou teachest me.

7 O how sweet are thy words unto my throat: yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth.

8 Through thy commandments I get understanding: therefore I hate all evil ways.

MORNING PRAYER

Lucerna credidus meis.

H Y word is a lantern unto my feet: and a light unto my paths.

2 I have sworn and am stedfastly purposed: to keep thy righteous judgments.

3 I have troubled above measure: quicken me, O Lord, according to thy word.

4 Let the free-will offerings of my mouth please thee, O Lord: & teach me thy judgments.

5 My soul is always in my hand: & the ungodly have laid a snare for me: but yet I sincerely not from thy commandments.

7 Thy testimonies have I claimed as mine heritage for ever: & why they are the very joy of my heart.

8 I have applied my heart to fulfil thy statutes alway: even unto the end.

In gloriam Domine.

L ORD, the word: endureth for ever in heaven.

2 The truth also remaineth from one generation to another: thou hast laid the foundation of the earth, and it abideth.

3 They continue this day according to their ordinance: for all things serve thee.

4 If my delight had not been in this law: I should have perished in my trouble.

5 Thou hast broken down all them that depart from thy statutes: for they imagine evil: & deceiveth.

7 Thou putteth away all the ungodly of the earth like dry grass: therefore

The XXVI

For I love thy testimonies.
2 My flesh trembleth for fear of thee, and am afraid of thy judgments.

Fecit iudicium.

DEAL with the things that is lawful and right: I give me not over unto mine opprissors.
2 Make thy servant to delight in that which is good: that the proud do me no wrong: that mine eyes are not always looking for thy health: and for the word of thy righteousnes.
3 Deal with thy servant according unto thy loving mercies: and teach me thy statutes.
4 I am thy servant, O grant me understanding that I may know thy testimonies.
5 It is time for thee, Lord, to lay to thine hand: for they have destroyed thy law.
6 For I love thy commandments: above gold and precious stone.
7 Therefore hold I straight all thy commandments: and all false ways I utterly abhor.

Morabilia.

THY testimonies are wonderful: therefore doth my soul keep them. When thy word goeth forth: it giveth light and understanding unto the simple. I opened my mouth, and drew in my breath: for my delights were in thy commandments. 4 I look thou upon me, and be merciful unto me: as thou usest to do unto those that love thy Name. 5 Order my steps in thy word: & so shall no wickedness have dominion over me. 6 Deliver me from the wrothful, dealings of men: and so shall keep thy commandments. 7 When the light of thy countenance upon thy servant: and teach me thy statutes. 8 Mine eyes gush out with water: because men keep not thy law.

Judas es, Domine.

RIGHTEOUS are thou, O Lord: and true is thy judgment: 2 The testimonies that thou hast commanded are exceedingly righteous and true. 3 My zeal hath even consumed me: because mine enemies have forgotten thy words. 4 Thy word is tried to the uttermost: and thy servant liveth. 5 I am small and of no reputation: yet do I not forget thy commandments. 6 Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness: and thy law is the truth. 7 Tremble and have mercy: have taken hold upon me: yet is my delight in thy commandments.

THE PSALMS.

8 The righteousness of thy testimonies is everlasting: I grant me understanding: & I shall live.

EVENING PRAYER.

Clamavi in te, sis mea.
I Call with me, whole heart: hear me, O Lord: I will keep thy statutes: & these do I call: help me: and I shall keep thy testimonies.
2 Make thy servant to delight in that which is good: that the proud do me no wrong: that mine eyes are not always looking for thy health: and for the word of thy righteousnes.
3 Deal with thy servant according unto thy loving mercies: and teach me thy statutes.
4 Early in the morning do I cry unto thee: for in thy word is my brightness: & these prevent the night-watches: that I might be occupied in thy words.
5 Hear my voice, O Lord: according unto thy loving kindness: quicken me according as thou art wont.
6 They draw nigh that oppose me: & say, Is not he far from his land? & he is at hand. O Lord: for all thy commandments are true: & is concerning thy testimonies, I do not forget thy commandments.

MORNING PRAYER.

PSALM 120.

Ad Dominum.
Vide humilitatem.
CONSIDER mine adversity and aduersitate: for I do not forget thy law.
2 Avenge thou my cause: and deliver me: quicken me according to thy word.
3 It shall be far from the ungodly: for they regard not thy statutes.
4 Great is thy mercy, O Lord: quicken me as there art wont.
5 Many there are that trouble me: and persecute me: yet do I not sacrifice from thy testimonies.
6 I griev me much: see the transgressors: because they keep thy law.
7 Consider, O Lord, how I love thy commandments: quicken me according to thy loving kindness.
8 Thy word is true from everlasting: all the judgments of thy righteousnes endure for evermore.

Principes res sentient.

RINCE S have persuad me without a cause: turned my heart standeth in one of thy words.
2 I am glad of thy word: as one that hateth great evils.
3 As for lies, that is abhorrent: but thy law do I love.
4 Seven times a day do I praise thee: because of thy righteous judgment.
5 Great is the peace that they have who love thy law: & they are not offended at it.
6 Lord, I have looked for thy saving health: and done after thy commandments.
7 My soul hath kept thy testimonies: & loved them exceedingly.
8 I have kept thy commandments and testimonies: for all my ways are before thee.

Appropinquat deprecatio before thee, O Lord: give me understanding according to thy word.

2 Let my supplication come before thee: deliver me according to thy word.

3 My lips shall speak of thy praises: when thou hast taught me thy statutes.

4 Yet my tongue shall sing of thy word: for all thy commandments are righteous.

5 Let thine hand help me: for I have obeyed thy commandments.

6 I have longed for thy saving health, O Lord: and in thy law is my delight.

7 I cry to thee, and it shall be given unto me: & my tongue shall laud thee: & my spirit shall rejoice for I do not forget thy commandments.

8 I have gone astray like a sheep: that is left: & seek thy servant for I do not forget thy commandments.

9 Be thou my guide, O Lord: for all thy commandments are true.

10 And concerning thy testimonies, I have known long since: that thou hadst founded them for ever.

11 I have been in trouble: I called upon the Lord: and he heard me.

12 Deliver my soul: O Lord, from lying lips: & from a deceitful tongue.

13 What venial and mortal sins: or done unto me: then falls a tongue: even mighty and sharp arrows: with his burning coals.

14 It is me that I am constrained to offend: & to have my habitation among the tents of Kedar.

15 My soul hath long dwelt among them: that are enemies unto peace.

16 I labour for peace: but when I speak unto them thereof: they make them ready to battle.

PSALM 122.

Laudari oculis.

IWILL lift up mine eyes unto the hills: from whence cometh my help.

2 My help cometh even from the Lord: who hath made heaven and earth.

3 He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: and he that keepeth thee will not sleep.

4 Behold he that keepeth Israel: shall neither number nor sleep.

5 The Lord himself is thy keeper: the Lord is thy defence upon thy right hand.

6 So that man shall not burn thee by day: neither burn by night.

7 The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: yea, it is even he that shall keep thy soul.

8 The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in: from this time forth for evermore.

Th. XXVII.

Locutus sum.

2 I was glad when they said unto me: We will go into the house of the Lord.

3 Our feet shall stand in thy gates: O Jerusalem.

4 Jerusalem is built as a city: that is at unity in itself.

5 For the tribes go up even the tribes of the Lord: to confess unto Israel to give thanks unto the Name of the Lord.

6 For there is the seat of judgment: even the seat of the house of David.

7 Pray for us of peace of Jerusalem: that shall be upon Israel.

THE PSALMS.

XXVII Day.

4 They children like the olive-branched: round about thy table.

5 O thus shall the man be blessed: that feareth the Lord.

6 The Lord from our portion shall so bless thee: that thou shalt see Jerusalem in prosperity all thy life long.

7 Yea, therefore shall see thy children: and peace upon Israel.

PSALM 129.

Soror et coniuguerunt.

1 ANY time, have they sought against me: from my youth up: may Israel now say.

2 Yea, many a time have they vexed me from my youth up: but they have not prevailea against me.

3 The flowers plucked upon my back: and made long furrows.

4 But the righteous Lord: hath hewn the paces of the ungodly in pieces.

5 Lest them be confounded and turn a back-ard: as many as have evil wind-sions.

6 Lest them be even as the grass: growing upon the house tops: which withereth before it is pluckt up.

7 Whereof the manna falleth not in his hand: neither he that kindeth up the shaves his boar.

8 So that they go not: say not so much as: The Lord profer you never good luck in the Name of the Lord.

PSALM 130.

De profundis.

1 Ut de deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord hear my voice.

2 O let them consider well: the voice of my complaint.

3 If thou Lord, will not extirpate to mark whordom amiss: O Lord who may abide it?

4 For there is misery with them: therefore shall they be feared.

5 I look for the Lord: my soul doth wait for him: his word is my truth.

6 My soul falleth unto the Lord: before the morning watch, I say before the morning watch.

7 I brach myself in the Lord: for with the Lord there is mercy: & with him is plenteous redemption.

8 And he shall redeem Israel from all his sins.

4 I looked also upon my right hand, and saw there was no man that would know me:
5 I had no place to flee unto: and no man care'd for my foul.
6 Considered these, o Lord: & said: There are no hope and my portion in the land of the living.
7 Consider my complaint: for I am brought very low.
8 Deliver me from my persecutors: for they are too strong for me.
9 Bring my soul out of prison: that may give thanks unto the Name: which that of them will grant me, then shall I be righteous unto my company.

EVENING PRAYER
PSALM 147.

Lauda Dominum.

O PRAISE the Lord: for it is a good thing to sing praises unto our god: for he is joyful and glad: & when thing's it's to be thanked.

2 The Lord doth build up Jerusalem: and gather together the out-calls of Israel.

3 He healeth the that are broken in heart: & giveth medicine to heal their sicknes.

4 He calleth the number of his staves: & calleth them all by their names.

5 Great is our Lord: and great is his power: yea: and his wisdom is infinite.

6 The Lord setteth up the meek: & bringeth the ungodly down to the ground.

7 Sing unto the Lord with thanksgiving: sing praises upon the harp unto our god.
