6. Amazing Grace -John Newton

CCLI# 2244261

G G7 C G D7
 Amazing grace! How sweet the sound, That saved a wretch like me.
 G G7 C G Em D G
 I once was lost, but now I'm found, Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, And grace my fears relieved.
 How precious did that grace appear The hour I first believed.

Through many dangers, toils and snares, I have already come.
 'Tis grace that brought me safe thus far, And grace will lead me home.
 The Lord has promised good to me, His word my hope secures
 He will my shield and portion be, as long as life endures

When we've been there ten thousand years, Bright shining as the sun,
 We've no less days to sing God's praise, Than when we first begun.

God in three persons, Blessed Trinity

Holy holy holy, All the saints adore thee
Casting down their golden crowns, Around the glassy sea
Cherubim and seraphim, Falling down before thee
Which wert and art, And evermore shalt be

Holy holy holy, Though the darkness hide thee
Though the eye of sinful man, Thy glory may not see
Only thou art holy, There is none beside thee
Perfect in power, In love and purity

Holy holy holy, Lord God almighty
All thy works shall praise thy name, In earth and sky and sea
Holy holy holy, Merciful and mighty

And when I think, that God, His Son not spa- ring,
Sent Him to die, I scarce can take it in,
That on the cross, my burden gladly bearing,
He bled and died to take away my sin.

When Christ shall come, with shout of acclamation,
And take me home, what joy, shall fill my heart!
Then I shall bow in humble adoration,
And there pro- claim, my God, how great Thou art!

 I will lead you all in the dance, said He
 I danced for the scribe and the pharisee
 But they would no dance and they wouldn't follow me
 I danced for the fisherman, for James and John
 They came with me and the dance went on

I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame
 The holy people said it was a shame
 They wipped and they stripped and they hung me high
 And they left me there on the cross to die

I danced on a Friday when the sky turned black
 It's hard to dance with the devil on your back
 They buried my body and they thought I'd gone
 But I am the dance and I still go on

They cut me down and I leap up high
 I am the life that'll never, never die!
 I'll live in you if you'll live in me
 I am the Lord of the Dance, said He

 D G A D Bm D G A D
 Spirit, Spirit of restlessness, Stir me from placidness, Wind, Wind on the sea.

You moved on the waters, you called to the deep.
 Then you coaxed up the mountains from the valleys of sleep.
 And over the aeons you called to each thing.
 Wake from your slumbers, and rise on your wings.

You swept through the desert, you stung with the sand.
 And you goaded your people with a law and a land.
 And when they were blinded with their idols and lies.
 Then you spoke through the prophets, to open their eyes.

You sang in a stable, you cried from a hill.
 Then you whispered in silence when the whole world was still.
 And down in the city you called once again.
 When you blew through your people, on the rush of the wind.

You call from tomorrow, you break ancient schemes.
 From the bondage of sorrow the captives dream dreams.
 Our women see visions, our men clear their eyes.
 With bold new decisions, your people arise.

95. The Cat Came Back -Harry S. Miller

Am G F E Am G F E7
 Old Mr. Johnson had trouble all his own, he had an old grey cat that wouldn't leave his home

Am G F E Am G F E7
 He tried and he tried to give the cat away, he gave it to a man goin' far, far away

Am G F E
 But the cat came back the very next day

Am G F E7
 The cat came back, they thought he was a goner

Am G F E7
 But the cat came back, they couldn't keep him away

He gave it to a man going up in a balloon.
 He told him to give it to the man up in the moon.
 The balloon came down about ninety miles away
 Where the man is now, well I'd rather not say

He gave it to a man going way out to the West.
 He told him to give it to the one whom he loved the best.
 His train went 'round the corner and hit a broken rail.
 Not a soul was left alive to tell the gruesome tale.

96. The Other Day

(this is a repeat after me song)

The other day,
 I met a bear,
 A great big bear,
 A way up there.
 The other day I met a bear, a great big bear a way up there

He looked at me,
 I looked at him,
 He sized me up,
 I sized up him.
 He looked at me...

He said to me,
 Why don't you run,
 I see you ain't,
 Got any gun.
 He said to me...
 And so I ran, away from there, but right behind, me was that bear...

Ahead of me, there was a tree, a great big tree, ahead of me...
 The nearest branch, was ten feet up, I'd have to jump, and trust my luck...
 And so I jumped, into the air, but I missed that branch, a way up there...
 Now don't you fret, now don't you frown, cause I caught that branch, on the way back down...
 That is the end, there is no more, unless I meet, that bear once more...
 And so I met, that bear once more, now he's a rug, on my bedroom floor...

 Brother, let me be your servant, let me be as Christ to you,
 G            D            Em            A    G Em                    G A7 D
 Pray that I might have the grace to, let you be my servant too.

We are pilgrims on a journey, we are brothers on the road,
 we are here to help each other, walk a mile and bear the load.

I will hold the Christ-light for you, in the night-time of your fear,
 I will hold my hand out to you, speak the peace you long to hear.

I will weep when you are weeping, when you laugh I'll laugh with you,
 I will share your joy and sorrow, till we've seen this journey through.

When we sing to God in heaven, we shall find such harmony, born of all we've known together, of Christ's love and agony.

Sister, let me be your servant, let me be as Christ to you,
 Pray that I might have the grace to, let you be my servant too.

Of rocks and trees, of skies and seas, His hand the wonders wrought.

This is my Father's world: The birds their carols raise;
The morning light, the lily white, declare their maker's praise.
This is my Father's world: He shines in all that's fair;
In the rustling grass I hear Him pass, He speaks to me everywhere.

This is my Father's world: O let me ne'er forget
That though the wrong seems oft so strong, God is the ruler yet.
This is my Father's world: The battle is not done;
Jesus, who died, shall be satisfied, And earth and heaven be one.
